Selling over 3,000 lawyers into the Personal Family Lawyer franchise while retaining only 100 active lawyers reflects a 97% churn rate, representing a material omission that any prospective buyer would expect to see disclosed.

While this data would typically be surfaced in a Franchise Disclosure Document (FDD), Katz is deliberately withholding it by failing to provide one.